Overview

[REDACTED] a small [REDACTED] appeared in the MOC HQ at some point in 11474. It is unknown how large their conceptual mass was, [REDACTED]. Their origin and nature is unknown.

Background

Other sightings of H [REDACTED] have occurred in the past. These reports come from some perpetrators of incidents throughout Reality as well as important scientists and engineers. One of the most interesting claims of a sighting of this concept comes from [REDACTED].

The lead [REDACTED] revealed that they sighted H [REDACTED] sneaking around the building. It is unknown what they were planning to do with the information. H [REDACTED] seems to be aware of when and where potentially dangerous things are about to happen.

Containment

Containment of H [REDACTED]. [REDACTED]. [REDACTED]. Fortunately, it has been deemed unnecessary to contain them, as they appear to only observe things happen, rather than actively participating in them.

Threat

It is unknown how much of a threat that H [REDACTED] could pose to the MOC, as recording this information is not possible remotely, and so far no [REDACTED]. It is possible that they could be [REDACTED] though this is questionable.

History

H [REDACTED] has existed since at least [REDACTED]. There is no other information on record about them.
